

FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protections.

Indiana's law has been very effective, I used to receive up to 10 calls/day now I don't receive any.